

PALO ALTO RIFLE & PISTOL CLUB RANGE RENTAL POLICY & FEES

The tenant will provide the club with insurance certificates to cover the specific time and dates of the range use. The minimum amount of coverage will be two million dollars and the policy will name Palo Alto Rifle & Pistol Club and Palo Alto Inc. as additional insured.

The tenant will pay a clean up deposit of $100 prior to range use. If the tenant intends to use club target holders an additional deposit of $150 is necessary. These deposits are refundable after an inspection by the club range officer verify that target holders are not damaged and brass has been policed in accordance with the club's range rules.

The tenant will conduct all activity in a manner agreeable with the club's range rules. (copy attached)

All minimum charges are applicable for each day the range is reserved whether the range is utilized or not.

The fee for the 25 meter pistol Range or the 100 meter rifle range (not both) will be $30 per shooter per day. The tenant will have exclusive use of that range for the days rented. The minimum number of shooters required is 20.

The fee for the both the 25 meter pistol range and the 100 meter rifle range will be $35 per shooter per day. The tenant will have exclusive use of those ranges for the days rented. The minimum number of shooters required is 20.

The fee for the use of the 600 yard rifle range will be $35 per shooter per day. The tenant will have exclusive use of that range for the days rented. The minimum number of shooters required is 30.

The fee for use of all ranges (25 meter pistol, 100 meter rifle, and 600 yard rifle range) or the use of any range where the tenant requires exclusive use of the range facility (membership is denied use for the term of the rental period) will be $40 per shooter per day. The minimum number of shooters required is 30.

Application for range rental will be made 30 days prior to range use.

Quantity discounts for more than 50 shooters are available upon request.